Herman Purdy Junior Livestock Scholarship Fund

Herman R. Purdy, teacher, judging team coach, and one of the world's most revered livestock judges, lived not far from Huntingdon in Hartslog Valley where he raised cattle. He was influential in the lives of many young 4-H and FFA members. The scholarship fund was started following his passing and scholarships are given to youth who have shown market livestock at the fair and are pursuing a post-high school education. Donation forms are available at the registration station if you would like to contribute to this fund.

2026 recipients will be recognized at the sale.

Understanding BUYBACK

Do you want to support the exhibitor without keeping the animal?

Show the BLUE buyback side of your buyer card at bidding.

You will see a credit for the buyback price on your sales invoice. You pay the remaining amount.

The buyback buyer pays the Fair Market Value and keeps the animal.

Completing your sale at Check-Out

1. Check to see that the animal tag number and price per head are correct.
2. NEW: Designate if you are KEEPING the animal or putting it on BUYBACK at check-out.
3. If you are keeping the animal, indicate who will be transporting the purchased animal. The receipt must be shown to the superintendent BEFORE loading the animal onto a truck.
4. If you need help with transportation or processors, stop by the registration area and you will be directed to someone who can assist you.

Hauling

HOGS must be transported directly to a USDA inspected or PDA registered processing facility per PDA regulations.

Anyone transporting sale animals must fill out and sign a TRUCKING MANIFEST

By donating your sale purchase to the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank, you are helping provide a valuable source of protein to individuals and families experiencing hunger. All donated animals will be processed by a USDA-certified butcher, with all hauling and processing costs covered by the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank. The resulting products will be distributed to our partner agencies throughout Huntingdon County, helping ensure nutritious food reaches those who need it most.

HOW IT WORKS

1. Register to receive your bidder number.
2. Pick up a Food Bank "Bid. Buy. Donate." card at registration.
3. Hold up your WHITE bidder number and Food Bank card for each animal you wish to donate.
4. At the checkout window, designate your donation to the Food Bank and pay for your purchase(s).
5. Your business will receive a receipt by mail for your tax-deductible donation.
